

Consequences for Breaking the Technology Policy Rules

First Offense—Warning for minor infractions and a pink referral will be placed in the student's record. (Consequences will be the same as for a Second Offense if the infraction has been going on for a while or is particularly serious.)

Second Offense—Staff is notified that the student shall not use any school computer equipment for two weeks. The student's parents will be notified and a pink referral will be placed in the student's record.

Third Offense—Staff is notified that the student shall not use any school computer equipment for the quarter. The student's parents will be notified and a pink referral will be placed in the student's record.

Fourth Offense—Staff is notified that the student shall not use any school computer equipment for the remainder of the school year. The student's parents will be asked to come in for a conference and a pink referral will be placed in the student's record.

Serious Offense—All of the above and notify law enforcement.
